

Norman Frady Succumbs In Local Hospital

Norman Frady, farmer and Macon County native, died January 9 at Angel Clinic, following an illness of a week. He was 72.

Funeral services for Mr. Frady were held the afternoon of the 11th at the Rose Creek church by the Rev. Claude Ledford. Burial was in the church cemetery.

He was the son of Colman and Mrs. Katherine Downs Frady.

Surviving are four brothers, George, Richard, Garlon, and Homer Frady, all of Jackson County.

Furman Welch, Floyd Roper, Charlie Downs, Robert Downik, John Hughes, and Norman Boston were pallbearers.

Potts Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 15 January 1959