

Walter Frazer Dies On Sunday

Walter Frazer, age 40, died at his home near Louisa Chapel last Sunday. His death was due to heart disease. He had previously been confined to the Angel hospital for treatment.

Mr. Frazer had worked for several years with the Ritter Lumber company in the county as lumber inspector. He was a valuable employe to the company, and a number of the officials of the concern attended his funeral on Monday afternoon. Mr. Frazer was a leading and highly respected citizen.

The deceased is survived by two sisters, five brothers and his father.

Funeral services were held at Louisa Chapel on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, with Rev. R. F. Mock in charge.

The Franklin Press, 9 January 1930