

Mr. Freeman

Dorman M. Freeman, 73, of Franklin, died Thursday, Jan. 18, in a local hospital.

A native of Huntington, W. Va., he was a son of the late Willard Freeman and Emma Wise Mayo. He was an engineer with Martin Marietta and a residential contractor. He was a U.S. Navy veteran, serving in WWII. He attended Newfound Conservative Baptist Church and was a member of Campers on Mission.

He is survived by his wife of 53 years, Sylvia Crank Freeman; a son, Daniel Freeman of Otto; a sister, Margaret Diamond of Ohio; a brother, Larry Freeman of Oklahoma; four grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Monday, Jan. 22, at Newfound Conservative Baptist Church. Revs. S.J. Waters, Lewis Smith and Carl Carpenter officiated. Burial was in the Asbury Methodist Cemetery, with military graveside rites conducted by VFW Post 7339 and American Legion Post 108.

Memorials may be made to the Newfound Conservative Baptist Church building fund or the American Lung Association, P.O. Box 2702, Asheville, N.C. 28802.

Macon Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 24 January 2001.