

Loyd Freeman

Loyd W. Freeman, 60-year-old Michigan native who has resided on Route 5 in Macon County for the past seven years, died last Friday in the Georgia Baptist Hospital in Atlanta.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the chapel of the Neal Potts Funeral Home with the Rev. Gene Hawkins conducting the service. Burial was in the Higdonville Baptist Church cemetery.

Besides his wife, Mrs. Joyce Hazelton Freeman, survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Linda Sabline of Cincinnati, Ohio and Mrs. Haslene Clouse of Bradenton, Fla.; three brothers, Paul Freeman, Keith Freeman and Max Freeman, all of Michigan; two sisters, Mrs. Barbara Lombra and Mrs. Freida Shipman, both of Michigan.

Neal - Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 20 July 1972