

Mr. Gale

Jack Lawrence Gale, 71, of Maitland, Fla., and Franklin, died Friday, July 10, in a Sarasota, Fla. hospital.

Born in Toledo, Ohio, he was a leader in the real estate industry. He was a builder, developer, and real estate broker in central Florida, and the Franklin area over a career spanning almost 50 years.

He was the author of nine books for real estate professionals and taught real estate courses throughout the United States.

A charter member and past president of the Maitland Rotary Club, he also served as president of the Maitland Chamber of Commerce. He was a member of the Orlando Church of Religious Science.

He is survived by one daughter, Kathleen Lawrence Gale McBroom of Santa Ynez, Calif.; one son, Brian Bodecker Gale of Maitland, Fla.; and one step-daughter, Danielle S. Poncina of Altamonte Springs, Fla.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Jack L. Gale Memorial Fund, c/o the Greater Orlando Association of Realtors, or to the Rotary Foundation, c/o the Franklin Rotary Club.

National Cremation Society of Sarasota, Fla. is in charge of arrangements.
