

Wayne Vance Garner

Wayne Vance Garner, 63, died Wednesday, March 10, 2004, in Austin, Texas.

He was born Jan. 24, 1941, in Dillard to William Buford and Mable Carver Garner.

He settled in Austin upon retirement from the U.S. Air Force, having attained the rank of senior master sergeant. He worked for the Internal Revenue Service in Austin.

Survivors include: his wife, Judy West Garner of Austin; a son and daughter-in-law, William Vance and Kathryn Garner of Driftwood, Texas; two daughters and sons-in-law, Talina and Jim Plant of Creedmoor, Texas, and Niki and Chris Whatley of Cedar Creek, Texas; a sister, Donna Garner Bailey of Mountain City; 11 grandchildren; two nephews, Bill Bailey of Mountain City and Robbie Bailey of Wiley; great-nieces, Abbie and Lexie Bailey, both of Wiley; and many cousins.

Services were held on March 16 at Marrs-Jones-Newby Funeral Home. Burial followed at Fairview Cemetery, Austin.

The Clayton Tribune, April 1, 2004