

Services Held For Mrs. Gasway At Camp Branch

Mrs. Alvie Welch Gasway, of Nantahala, who died November 9 in Morganton at the age of 58, was buried the 12th in the Camp Branch Baptist cemetery, following services conducted by the Rev. Glenn Dills. She was a member of the Camp Branch church.

A native of this county, Mrs. Gasway was the daughter of Dave and Mrs. Callie Truitt Welch. She was married to Alonza Gasway, of Swain County.

Surviving are two sons, Chletis Gasway, of Nantahala, and D. M. Welch, of High Point; three daughters, Mrs. Love Allen and Mrs. Eugene Smith, of High Point, and Mrs. Pauline Hancock, of Blue Ridge, Ga.; two sisters Mrs. Martha McMahan and Mrs. Alice Doughtit, of Nantahala; and 11 grandchildren.

Potts Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 20 November 1958