

Jable Gibson

Jable Gibson, 101, of Screamer Street, Clayton, died Tuesday, Sept. 17, 2002, in Angel Medical Center in Franklin, N.C.

He was born March 7, 1901, in Rabun Gap, Ga., son of the late Elam and Lizzie Wright Gibson. He was a utility man and was retired from the Georgia Power Company 30 years ago.

He was a member of the Corner Rock AME Zion Methodist Church in Clayton, where he was a faithful worshipper for many years.

Survivors include his wife of 60 years, Elise Moseley Gibson of the home, several nieces and nephews, and many good friends.

Funeral services were Sunday, Sept. 22, 2002, at 3 p.m. at the Ivy Hill Baptist Church. The Rev. Walter Bryson, the Rev. Herbert Grant, the Rev. Edward Griffith and the Rev. Bishop Feaster officiated.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Sept. 26, 2002