

Mr. Gibson

Neal "Bozo" Gibson, 67, of Marietta, Ga., died Tuesday, April 27, in Greenville Memorial Hospital after an extended illness. He was a native of Macon County, the son of the late Noah A. and Josephine Southerland Gibson, and was married to Doris Horne Gibson, who survives. He was a member of the Church of God.

Other survivors include his former wife, Mrs. Mamie Taylor, of Rock Hill, S.C.; two sons, Bill Junior Gibson, of Wingate, and Wayne "Buddy" Gibson, of Marietta, Ga.; four daughters, Mrs. Howard Hooper, of Cullowhee, Mrs. Jerry Edens, of York, S.C., and Mrs. Roger Harris and Mrs. Charles Morton, both of Rock Hill, S.C.; four step-daughters, Mrs. Dennis McConnell, of Marietta, Ga., Mrs. Donald Gordon, of Largo, Fla., Mrs. C.A. Goodson, of Crystal River, Fla., and Mrs. Jerry Davis, of Mantachie, Miss.; three brothers, Bishop Gibson, of Rockford, Tenn., Jack Gibson, of Doraville, Ga., and Noah Lee Gibson, of Oak Hill, Fla.; two sisters, Mrs. Leonard Green, of Franklin, and Mrs. Andy Anderson, of Arroyo Grande, Calif.; 21 grandchildren, 20 great-grandchildren, 10 step-grandchildren, and seven step-great-grandchildren.

Services were held Thursday, April 29, at Prentiss Church of God, and burial was in Ridgecrest Baptist Church Cemetery. The Revs. Julian Holloway and Don Moffitt officiated, and pallbearers were Joe Tallent, Hubert Bateman, Roger Bates, Bud Phillips, Frank Moffitt, Wayne Stamey, and David Houston.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.