

Newton G. Gibson

Newton G. Gibson, 88, of 65 Green Street, died last Monday in a Franklin hospital after a six weeks' illness.

For 65 years he was a dry cleaner and a tailor. He was twice married, first to Nannie Mallonee, who died in 1924 and second to Janeatree Wilson, who survives.

Other survivors include six daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Broyles, Mrs. Alberta Collins and Mrs. Bernice Frazier, all of Detroit, Mich.; Mrs. Rebecca Harris and Mrs. Geraldine Irby, both of Chicago, Ill., and Mrs. Dora Caldwell of Virginia Beach, Va.; four sons, the Rev. Andrew Gibson of Rochester, N. Y., Boyd of Detroit, James of Richmond, Calif., and Charles Gibson of Franklin; a brother, Jable Gibson, of Clayton, Ga.

Services were held Thursday in Ray's Chapel AME Zion Church, of which he was an active member.

The Rev. Edward Griffith conducted the service. Burial was in St. Cyprian Church Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Roosevelt Scruggs, Henry Case, J. D. Shepherd, Charles Wykle, Frank Moore and Jeter Love.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.