

Ben Giles

Ben Hallaway Giles, 63-year old Macon County native, was killed in an auto wreck in New Jersey Sunday, March 21.

Funeral services were held the following Tuesday at the Liberty Baptist Church with Rev. Clyde Collins, pastor, Rev. C. C. Welch, and Rev. Wesley Hooper conducting the service. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Frank Gibson, Dan R. Reynolds, Kenneth Dalton, Lyndon Hurst, Perry Shepherd, and Raymond Shepherd.

He is survived by his second wife, Mrs. Pearl Hurst Giles; five daughters, Mrs. Jessie Grooms, of Route 3, Crosby, Tenn., Mrs. Gilmer Ledford, of Route 2, Franklin, Mrs. James Carpenter, of Route 2, Franklin, Mrs. William O. Ansley, of Rahway, New Jersey, and Miss Kay Giles, of the home; five sons, Edwin Giles, of Route 2, Franklin, James Giles, of Colonia, New Jersey, Ronnie Giles, of Rahway, New Jersey, and Bruce and Mike Giles of the home; two brothers, Clifford Giles, of Route 2, Sylva, and George Giles, of Route 3, Cosby, Tenn.

Neal - Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.