

John J. Goodleaf

A New York retiree pursued fly-fishing in Franklin

John J. Goodleaf, 81, died Oct. 25, in Bothell, Wash., following a short illness.

He originally lived in New York, where he worked making neon signs.

After retirement, he moved to Franklin, where he spent 17 years pursuing his interests in fly-fishing and art.

He is survived by his wife of 59 years, Marguerite "Peggy" Goodleaf of Kirkland, Wash., his son, Richard, of Bellevue, Wash.; a brother, George Goodleaf of Bushkill, Pa.; and grandsons John Goodleaf of Seattle, Wash., and Patrick Goodleaf of Dublin, Calif.

Private services will be held at Green Funeral Home in Kirkland.

The Franklin Press, 31 October 2003