

Bruce Floyd Goodwyn Sr.

Bruce Floyd Goodwyn Sr., 84, of Fort Pierce, Fla., and Mountain City, died Wednesday, Oct. 27, 2004.

He was born in Jacksonville, Fla., and made his home in Fort Pierce in 1948. He served in the U.S. Army Signal Corps during World War II. He worked for Southern Bell for 34 years before retiring.

He was a member of the First United Methodist Church, Fort Pierce, where he served as youth coordinator, Sunday school superintendent and a trustee. He was a member of the Telephone Pioneers. He enjoyed fishing and many summers with his family in the North Georgia mountains. His retirement years were spent tending his yard.

Survivors include: his wife of 56 years, Mary Bickly Goodwyn; a son and daughter-in-law, Bruce and Michelle Goodwyn Jr. of Vero Beach, Fla.; a daughter, Susan Goodwyn of Americus; and two grandsons, Bruce "Trae" Goodwyn III and Blake Goodwyn, both of Vero Beach.

Funeral services were held Monday at First United Methodist Church, Fort Pierce, with the Rev. Todd Stube officiating. Burial followed in White City Cemetery.

Yates Funeral Home, Fort Pierce, was in charge of arrangements.
