

Hubert Gragg

Hubert V. Gragg, 88, of Lakemont, died April 7, 2002 at the home of his daughter, Betty Justus of Clayton.

Born in Rabun County, he had lived most of his life in Rabun. He was the husband of Evelyn Evans Gragg and was the son of the late E.L. and Missouri Shedd Gragg. He was retired from the Rabun County Board of Education as a school bus driver and from Gulf Oil Company as a truck driver. He was a member of the Flat Creek Baptist Church where he served as a deacon for more than sixty years.

Survivors include his wife, Evelyn Evans Gragg of the home; one daughter, Betty Gragg Justus of Clayton; one sister, Ora Gragg of Clayton; one grandson, Randy Justus of Lakemont; and several nephews, nieces and cousins.

Funeral services were held April 10, 2002 at the Flat Creek Baptist Church with Rev. Waymond Lunsford, Rev. Bobby Burke and layman Lloyd Hunter officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery. Deacons of Flat Creek Baptist Church served as pallbearers.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.