

Javan J. Gray

Javan J. Gray, 38, of the Hickory Knoll Community and native of Macon County, died Tuesday, October 12, in the Toccoa Nursing Center. He was the son of the late George and Eugenia Slagle Gray and was married to the late Mae Stiles Gray, who died in 1967.

Services were held Friday at the Morrison Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member and an Elder for many years, with the Rev. Wyatt Aiken, Dr. W. Thomas Lane and Dr. Oliver Wood conducting the service. Burial was in the Rush Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Howell Justice, Charles Stiles, Will Keener, J. B. Henson, Wilbur Ledbetter and Bill Abercrombie.

Mr. Gray is survived by one son, Elam G. Gray, of Watergap, Delaware; three daughters, Mrs. Ross F. Davis, of Demorest, Ga., Mrs. Elmer W. Crawford, of Winston-Salem, and Mrs. Gus Baldwin, of Franklin; three sisters, Mrs. Charles McClure, of Franklin, Mrs. James B. Medford, of Clyde, and Mrs. Robert L. Crook, of Dallas, Texas; ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Neal - Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 21 October 1971