

T. M. Green

T. M. Green, 68, of the Carson Community, died Thursday, December 30, in Detroit, Mich., after an illness of six months. He was born in Haywood County, a son of the late Sam and Nannie Sellers Green, and was married to the former Miss Ruth Wallace. He was retired from a Detroit lumber company.

Funeral services were held Sunday, January 2, in Louisa Chapel Methodist Church, of which he was a member, and burial was in the church cemetery. Officiating minister was the Rev. William T. Haselden, pastor, and pallbearers were Charles, Howard, Hilton, and William Wallace and George and Kenneth Waldroop.

Surviving, in addition to the wife, are five sons, George, James, Paul, Thad, and Jerry Green, all of Detroit; five daughters, Mrs. Mildred Brymer, Mrs. Helen Blackburn, Mrs. Sue Suchy, and Mrs. Betty Kanish, all of Detroit, and Mrs. Cherrell Herron, of Virginia; one brother, Bill Green, of Franklin; six sisters, Mrs. J. B. Henson, of Canton, Mrs. Roy Johnson, of Detroit, Mrs. Byron Waldroop, Mrs. Ernest Wallace, Mrs. George Reece, and Mrs. J. D. Gibson, all of Franklin; twenty-two grandchildren; and five great-grandchildren.

Neal and Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.