

Michael Darren Greer, 24, of Clayton, died Wednesday, Feb. 20, 2008, from injuries he received in a wreck.

He was a 2002 graduate of Rabun County High School. He was a member of Toccoa Church of God and attended North Mount Zion Church of God. He enjoyed fishing, ice hockey, playing pool, riding his bike, golfing and spending time with friends and family.

He was preceded in death by a grandmother, Leila "Bird" Littrell; and a grandfather, Howard "Bud" Greer.

Survivors include: his parents, Gary Alan Greer and Elaine Holbrook Greer, both of Clayton; a sister, Amber Nicole Greer of Clayton; a grandfather, Tony Littrell Sr. of Clayton; a grandmother, Judith Hurt-Whitmire of Clayton; two great-grandmothers, Bonnie Greer of Bristol, Va., and Helen Hurt of Bristol, Tenn.; and a niece, Halle Noel Greer of Clayton.

Funeral services were held Sunday at Beck Funeral Home with the Revs. Joey Grizzle and Teddy King officiating. Burial followed at Persimmon Cemetery.

Community Bank & Trust, 174 Highway 441 N., Clayton, GA 30525, is accepting donations on his behalf.

Beck Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. An online guestbook is available at www.beckfuneralhome.com.

The Clayton Tribune, Feb. 28, 2008