

Mrs. Gregory

Former Macon Woman; Dies In S. C.

Funeral services for Mrs. C. Gregory, 35, who died at her home at Tigersville, S. C., May 14, were held at the Sugarfork Baptist church Wednesday afternoon of last week. The Rev. W. L. Sorrells, pastor, officiated, assisted by the Rev. J. A. Baty, Baptist minister of Highlands. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

The pallbearers were Leonard Corbin, Leo Corbin, Sanford Mann, Floyd Long, George Gregory and Louis Gregory.

Surviving are her husband, Carnegie Gregory; three children, Hoyt Gregory, in the U. S. Navy, stationed in Norfolk, Va., Misses Ernestine and Jo Ann, of Tigersville; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Corbin, of Tigersville; two sisters, Mrs. Sanford Mann, Franklin, Route 2, and Mrs. Floyd Long, of Franklin; and two brothers, Leonard Corbin, of Asheville and Leo Corbin, of Tigersville.

Mrs. Gregory, the former Miss Gladys Corbin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Corbin, formerly of Cullasaja, now of Tigersville, had lived all her life in the Cullasaja community until two months ago when she and her family moved to South Carolina. She was a member of the Sugarfork Baptist church.

The body was brought to Franklin Tuesday and remained at the Bryant funeral home here until time of the funeral.
