

Gribble

Services Held

Mrs. Mary Belle Rogers Gribble, 54, of the Union Community died at her residence last Tuesday evening after an illness of two years. A native of Macon County, she was the wife of Mr. Hardin Gribble, and the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rogers.

Mrs. Gribble is survived by two sons; Robert Gribble of Franklin, Hardin, Jr., of U.S. Army, five daughters; Mrs. Doris Owen of Brevard, Mrs. Carroll Pollock of Hampton, Va., Mrs. Betty Shuler and Mrs. Lana Hires, both of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Miss Helen Gribble of the home. Other survivors include a brother John E. Rogers of Brevard and nine grandchildren.

Services took place at the Union Methodist Church, of which Mrs. Gribble was a member at 2:00 p.m. Friday, and burial was in the church cemetery. The Rev. Clifford Clubb conducted the services. Bryant Funeral Home was in charge.
