

Alice Grigg

Mrs. Alice Redfield Grigg, 75, of Detroit, Mich., formerly of Franklin, died Saturday, December 29, in Jarvis Acres Nursing Home in Dimondale, Mich.

She is survived by her husband, Albert W. Grigg; a daughter, Miss Marilyn M. Grigg, of Lansing, Mich.; a son, Dan R. Grigg, of Cincinnati, Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. Ruth R. Conklin and Mrs. Vera R. Seymour; and two grandchildren.

Mrs. Grigg was a member of the Zonta Club in Detroit, was a teacher of Speech and Drama at the Detroit Conservatory of Music from 1952 to 1961, and was affiliated with the Y.W.C.A. in Detroit and Highland Park as a teacher of speech, drama, arts and crafts. She was a member of the Macon County Art Association and served as president for two years, 1970-71.

The Griggs made their home in Franklin from 1963 to 1973.

A memorial service will be held at a later date and memorials may be made to the Cancer Fund.

The Franklin Press, 10 January 1974