

Mrs. Carrie Grindstaff

Mrs. Carrie P. Grindstaff, 76, of Palmer Road, died early Friday in a local hospital after a three-week illness.

She was associated with the Asheville Mica Co. for many years, having worked in Asheville, Keent, N.H. and Franklin. She was the widow of Graham W. Grindstaff.

Surviving are a brother, Fred Palmer of Canton; and a sister, Mrs. Minnie P. Mize, of Asheville.

Services were held at 4 p.m. Sunday in the Franklin First Baptist Church, of which she was a member.

The Rev. C. C. Welch and Dr. Thomas W. Lane officiated. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

The body remained at Mize Mortuary, Clayton, Ga., until 2 p.m. Saturday, when it was brought to Neal and Potts Funeral Home, Franklin, and placed in the church one hour prior to the services.

The Franklin Press, 2 October 1969