

Mrs. Groover

Margaret Middleton Groover, 97, a resident of Highlands, formerly of College Walk, Brevard and Miami Beach, Fla., died Friday, July 26. She was born in Savannah, Ga., the daughter of the late Porter and Sally Virginia Campell Middleton.

In addition to her parents, she was predeceased by her husband, Gene Groover. She was a homemaker and had worked with her husband in Groover's Pharmacy in Miami Beach for 20 years and at Boca Raton Hotel Drug Store. Mrs. Groover was a graduate of Georgia State College for Women.

She is survived by her two daughters, Peggy Cowherd of Highlands, and Billie Olesen and her husband, Robert, of Hendersonville; five grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be held at a later date at Boca Raton Municipal Cemetery in Boca Raton, Fla.

Memorials may be made to Fidelia Eckerd Long Term Care, 100 Hospital Drive, Highlands, NC 28741.

Bryant Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 30 July 2002