

John Davis Guy, 75, of Franklin, passed away Monday, May 7, 2007.

A native of Wrentham, Mass., he was the son of the late John and Mary Davis Guy.

John was a truck driver for over 40 years and was a U.S. Marine Corps veteran, serving in Korea. He was a volunteer driver for the Disaster Relief Ministry for the Southern Baptist Association. John was a founding member of the Train Collectors Association and was an avid collector of antique trains, toys and coins. He attended Holly Springs Baptist Church.

Surviving are his wife of 55 years, H. Jean Botting Guy; four children, Brenda Ferrara and husband Austin, John E. Guy and wife Deborah Lee, all of Franklin, Donna Banks and husband Stephen of Dunedin, Fla., Julie Suemicht and husband Brian of Greenbush, Wis.; nine grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Services are pending.

Macon Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

Online condolences are available by visiting www.maconfuneralhome.com.

The Franklin Press, 11 May 2007