

Shirley Caine Halter, 77, of Greenville, S.C., died Friday, Aug. 18, 2006.

She was born June 22, 1929, in Greenville to Robert Monteith and Ruth Potts Caine. She graduated from Greenville High School and the University of Georgia. She was active in community affairs, serving as chairwoman of the Parents Panel and as past president of the Junior League of Greenville. She was a former columnist for The Greenville News and created and managed UpCounty Galleries. She was a communicant of Christ Church and served as a member of the board of visitors for Christ Church Episcopal School. She enjoyed gardening, writing, decorating, cooking and spending time with family and friends at Pawleys Island, S.C., and Lake Rabun.

Survivors include: her husband, Frank B. Halter; two daughters and sons-in-law, Deborah H. and Mike Bell of Greenville and Laura H. and Nick Sardone of New York; two sons and daughters-in-law, Frank B. "Brad" and Sharon Halter Jr. and Robert and Laurie Caine Halter, all of Greenville; and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Sunday at Christ Church in Greenville with the Rev. Robert Dannals officiating. Burial followed in the churchyard.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Christ Church Grounds Beautification Fund.

An online memorial register is available at www.mackeymortuary.com.

The Clayton Tribune, Aug. 31, 2006