

Mrs. Hancock

Margaret O'Brien Hancock, 71, of Miami and the Clarks Chapel community of Franklin, died Tuesday, April 28, in Miami.

She was born in Winston-Salem, and moved to Miami in 1934; she was a graduate of Miami Senior High School and the University of Miami. She married Eugene Hancock in 1949.

Very active in community affairs, she was instrumental in establishing St. Stephen's Episcopal Day School in Miami, and was recognized later in life with the Florida Woman of Distinction Award by the governor. She was a parishoner at St. Agnes Episcopal Church in Franklin.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by sons Andrew and Charles; a daughter, Margaret Hutchinson; and a sister, Dinah Matthers.

Funeral services were held Saturday, May 2, at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Miami. Ahern-Plummer Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

