

James Harmon

James Edward Harmon, 87, of Duluth, formerly of Mountain City, died January 2, 2002.

Mr. Harmon was the former owner of Mountain City Window Magic before moving to Duluth.

Survivors include his wife, Dorothy Whitten Harmon; two daughters,

Sally H. Brown of Richardson, TX., and Mary Dakie Osborne of Duluth; a sister, Rozellé Fortenberry of Shelby, N.C.; six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

A memorial service was held Jan. 5, 2002 at Duluth First United Methodist Church.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Mountain City United Methodist Church-Incentive Fund, P.O. Box 100, Tallulah Falls, GA 30573 or to the building fund at Duluth First United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 699, Duluth, GA 30096.

The Clayton Tribune, 10 January 2002