

IN HIGHLANDS —

J. L. Harvey, Painting Contractor, Dies 12th

Joseph L. Harvey, of Mrs. Vallora P. Trott, of Highlands, a former resident of Franklin, died Tuesday, February 12, at 9 a.m. Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements at his home. He was 63.

Funeral services for Mr. Harvey, a painting contractor, were conducted the 10th at 10:30 a.m. at the St. Agnes Episcopal Church by the Rev. Wilson Sneed. Burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Robert J. Korte, Howard Haithcock, Frank Huey, John H. Davis, Allen Ordway, and Charles Saunders.

A native of Washington, D. C., Mr. Harvey was a member of the Marine Corp in World War I and served in the U.S. Army during World War II. He was a member of the St. Agnes church.

He is survived by a sister,

The Franklin Press, 21 February 1963