

Phyllis Hastings, 52, of Lakemont, died Friday, Dec. 22, 2006, at her home.

She was born in Rabun County to Katherine Kell Hastings Crisp of Tiger and the late Howard Hastings. She worked as a carpenter and attended Wiley Church of God.

She was preceded in death by: a son, Jonathan Henry; two grandmothers, Grace Kell and Nellie Bingham; and a grandfather, Alex Hastings.

Survivors included: her mother, Katherine Crisp of Tiger; a son, Christopher S. Ledford of Tiger; a daughter, Misty Dawn Bonds of Piedmont, S.C.; three brothers, James H. Hastings of Lakemont, Kenneth W. Hastings of Clayton and Mark D. Hastings of Franklin, N.C.; two sisters, Donna K. Layman of Sevierville, Tenn., and Sharon Sexton of Lakemont; two grandchildren, Chloe and Kolby Bonds, both of Piedmont, S.C.; and grandparents, Donald Lee and Bea Kell of Otto, N.C.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Cartoogechaye Church of God in Franklin, N.C., with the Revs. Jimmie Kilby and Evelyn Wilburn officiating. Burial followed at the Mount Zion Cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Dec. 28, 2006