

Wanda Campbell Hauser

Wanda Campbell Hauser, 77, of Franklin, passed away Wednesday, July 13, 2005, in Asheville.

Born in Portland, Ore., she was the daughter of the late Clyde Ira and Margaret Lynch Campbell. She was also preceded in death by two sisters, Ilene and Ruby; and a brother, William.

She was a U.S. Army veteran of the Korean War era and was retired from the University of Oregon Agricultural Experiment Station. She was of the Mormon faith.

She is survived by three sons, Robert Hauser and William Hauser, both of Franklin, and Michael C. Hauser and wife Jackie of Charleston, Ark.; a brother, Clyde Campbell Jr. of Florence, Colo.; one granddaughter, Heather Nicole Hauser of Charleston; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Memorial services will be held Tuesday, July 19, at 7 p.m., at her residence, 731 Thompson Rd., Franklin.

Bryant Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 19 July 2005.