

Mr. Hazen

Russell E. Hazen, 85, of Ellwood City, Pa., died Friday, Aug. 16, in Ellwood City. He was the son of the late George and Ida Hazen.

He was retired from U.S. Steel and a member of the Frist Christian Church.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Caroline Wiley Hazen; two brothers, George and William Hazen, a sister Georgian Hazen; a grandson and two great grandsons.

He is survived by his wife, Anna Fenechi Hazen; three sons, Russell E. and wife, Karen Hazen of North Sewickley, Pa.; Donald L. and wife, Edith Hazen of Franklin; and Gary and wife

Sue Hazen of Franklin; one daughter, Patricia and husband, Conrad Claycomb of Prospect, Pa., a step son Dennis and wife Mary Herko of Kentucky and a step daughter Georgia and husband Robert Servick of Ellwood City.; one brother Ralph Hazen of Ellwood City.; 14 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Funeral service was held at Samuel Teolis Funeral Home in Ellwood City, on Monday, Aug. 19. Rev. Stephen B. Show, pastor of Lillyville Church of God, officiated.

Memorials may be made to the First Christian Church, 110 Ada Drive, Ellwood City, PA 16117 or to the American Diabetes Association.