

Truman Head, 81, of Las Cruces, N.M., passed away on Thursday, Oct. 19, 2006, at Mountain View Regional Medical Center in Las Cruces.

He was born in Pedernal, N.M., on Feb. 13, 1925, to Mary Lorraine Prichard and John Alexander Head. He married Murleen Hisaw on Oct. 15, 1949, and had two children, Vicki Elaine and David Head.

Mr. Head is survived by his children, Vicki Berry and husband Richard of Las Cruces, and his son, Michael and wife Terri of Franklin; his precious granddaughter, Rebekah, soon to be of Philadelphia, Pa.; his brothers, Frank of Mullin, Texas, Phillip and wife Jan of Manteca, Calif., John Jr. and wife Alice of Las Cruces; sisters, Peggy and husband Richard Hardin of Stockton, Calif., and Ann and husband Ron Brodd of Albuquerque, N.M.; and his brother-in-law, Richard Hisaw and wife Kathryn of Dallas, Texas.

Funeral services were held Monday, Oct. 23, at Graham's Mortuary Chapel in Las Cruces, with burial at Masonic Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions be made to the Veterans' Memorial Wall Committee, P.O. Box 817, Las Cruces, NM 88004.

The Franklin Press, 27 October 2006