

Rachel Jordan Cannon Healey, 66, of Mountain City, died Tuesday, Aug. 30, 2005, at Mountain Lakes Medical Center.

She was born Oct. 2, 1938, in Oconee County, S.C., to Clyde and Arizona Bolt Jordan. She spent the greater part of her life in Rabun County. She retired from the textile industry and was a homemaker. She was a member of Chechero Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, John Robert Healey.

Survivors include: a son, Rodney Carl Allsep of Clemson, S.C., a daughter, Helen Justus of Clayton; two brothers, Buster Jordan of Oakway, S.C., and David Jordan of Westminster, S.C.; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday at Hunter Funeral Home with the Rev. Larry Cannon and layman Lloyd Hunter officiating. Burial followed in the Rocky Grove Baptist Church cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Sept. 8, 2005