

Carl Stephen Heck

Carl Stephen Heck, 100, of Franklin, died Wednesday, July 14, 2004, at a local care center.

A native of Bitz, Germany, he was the son of the late Josef and Sophia Heck. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Louise A. Heck, who died in December 2000 and a son, Samuel Heck.

He was a watch maker, and worked in the instrument shop at Eastern Airlines. He was known to be an avid violin and trumpet player and was of the Presbyterian faith.

Surviving are one daughter, Elizabeth Underwood and husband Charles of Franklin; six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Macon Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 20 July 2004