

Mr. Hedden

Lensy Odell Hedden, 75, of 463 Ruby Mine Road, died Thursday, May 11, in a Franklin nursing home after a short illness.

A native of Macon County, he was a son of the late John and Rule Woods Hedden. He was a self-employed logger and farmer and married to Iner Shepard Hedden.

Surviving are four sons, Jimmy Hedden of Franklin, Charles Hedden of Riverdale, Ga., Earl Hedden of Buford, Ga., and Richard Hedden of Alpharetta, Ga.; four sisters, Nellie Peek, Ina Carpenter and Dottie Gregory of Franklin and Allie Gibson of Canton; seven brothers, Sherman, Homer, Theodore and Elbert Hedden, all of Franklin, Jesse Hedden of Candler, Cleatus Hedden of Naples, Fla., and Ray Hedden of Forest city; and six grandchildren.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the chapel of Bryant Funeral Home. Rev. Wiley Gibson and Rev. Henry Burton will officiate. Burial will be in Strain cemetery. Pallbearers will be Kim Hedden, John Hedden, Charles Hedden Jr., Ronnie Hedden, Randy Hedden and Danny Reynolds.

The Franklin Press, 12 May 1989