

Mr. Hedden

Roy Odell Hedden, 66, of the Yellow Mountain Community, Cullowhee, died Wednesday, August 18, at the home, after a period of declining health. He was a native of Macon County, the son of the late George D. and Callie Buchanan Hedden, and was married to Aline Peek Hedden, who survives. He was a member of Glenville Masonic Lodge No. 551 AF/AM.

He is survived by a son Kenneth Hedden, of Atlanta, Ga.; four daughters, Carolyn Logan, Jean Hedden, and Mary Ellen Pruitt, all of Atlanta, and Marjorie Pope, of Fairfax, Va.; three brothers, Quince Hedden, of the Yellow Mountain Community, Aaron Hedden, of Enoree, S.C., and Howard Hedden, of Franklin; a sister, Lola Rogers, of Richlands, Va.; and six grandchildren.

Services were held Friday, August 20, at Yellow Mountain Baptist Church, of which he was a member, and burial was in the Evitt Cemetery. The Rev. Melvin Brooks officiated, and pallbearers were Arnold Buchanan, Curley Potts, W.A. Berry, Arley Moss, Jim Winkleblack, and Odell Stewart. Honorary pallbearers were members of the Glenville Masonic Lodge, who also conducted graveside rites.

Bryant Funderal Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 20 August 1982