

Charlie Henry

Charlie Henry, 73, of Route 5, Franklin, died Sunday, June 11, in Angel Community Hospital after a long illness. He was a native of Macon County, a son of the late Jake W. and Carrie Moses Henry, and was married to the late Lexie Ammons Henry. He was a retired timberman.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, June 13, at Ellijay Bible Baptist Church, of which he was a charter member, and burial was in the Ellijay Baptist Church Cemetery. Officiating ministers were the Revs. William Wooten, Howard Southard, and Alton Dendy. Active pallbearers were Gene Pickens, Conrad Henry, Wiley Brown, Eddie Long, Troy Rogers, and Bruce Bryant. Honorary pallbearers were Kerma Holland, George Moses, L. T. Moses, Lyman Higdon, Wiley Henry, and Harrison Ammons.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Hugh Patton, of Swannanoa; four brothers, Canton, Tom, Grady, and Joe Henry, all of Franklin; three sisters, Mrs. Richard Ammons, of Cullowhee, Mrs. Grady Mashburn and Mrs. Albert Rogers, both of Route 5, Franklin; and one grandchild.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 15 June 1972