

Donna Munger Henry, 49, of Highlands, N.C., died Tuesday, Sept. 6, 2005, in Highlands.

She was born in Macon County to Fred and Madge Owens Munger of Highlands. Known as "Momma Donna" to numerous children, she was a landscaper and of the Baptist faith.

Survivors include: her parents, a daughter and son-in-law, Sheena and Harrison Adams of Clarkesville; a son, Jackson Henry of Highlands; two sisters, Patricia Barnes of Clayton and Gloria Munger of Highlands; a brother, Ricky Munger of Clayton; and four grandsons.

Funeral services were held Sept. 8 in the Bryant Funeral Home chapel in Highlands with the Revs. Mark Bagwell, Ronnie Hodge and Kenneth Carver officiating. Burial followed in Highlands Memorial Park. Members of Heavens Saints Motorcycle Ministry served as pallbearers.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. Online sympathy messages can be sent to www.bryantfuneralhomes.com.

The Clayton Tribune, Sept. 15, 2005