MRS. HENRY, MACONIAN, SUCCUMBS

Rites In Calif.; Was Widow Of Rufus Henry

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Jane (Jenny) Henry, 86, in a hospital in Fairfield, Calif., Wednesday of [illegible] eral months.

Mrs. Henry was a native of the Higdonville section of Macon County, and was a daughter of the late J. K. and Mrs. Margaret Higdon Bryson. She was married in 1890 to Rufus A. Henry, also of Macon County, who died in 1949. Mrs. Henry had lived in California for 42 years.

Surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Joe Ashear, of Franklin, Mrs. Margaret Caliquiuri and Mrs. Lillie J. Schumacher, both of Vallejo, Calif.; two sons, Rufus R. Henry and James William Henry, of Ojai, Calif.; 15 grandchildren; and 16 great-grandchildren; a brother, the Rev. J. A. Bryson, of Columbia, Mo.; and two sisters, Mrs. John D. Moore, of Franklin, and Mrs. Delia Briggs, of Rome, Ga.

Services were held Saturday morning in Vallejo, and burial also was there.

The Franklin Press, 25 June 1959