

Carl P. Henson

Carl Pearson Henson, 69, of the Union Community, died Thursday, February 7, in Angel Community Hospital after an illness of three weeks. He was a native of Macon County and a retired construction worker. He was married to the former Miss Gussie Ledford who survives.

Also surviving are four sons, Guy M. Henson, of Monroe, J. Hoover Henson, of Franklin, Don L. Henson, of Dunsmiur, Calif., and Doyle Henson, of Lake Toxaway; two daughters, Mrs. John Sanders, of Franklin, and Mrs. Charles Moses, of Kings Mountain; three brothers, Thurman and Edmond Henson, of Otto, and Carter Henson, of Asheville; 20 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held Friday, February 8, in Prentiss Baptist Church, of which he was a member and served as Sunday School Superintendent and Deacon, and burial was in the church cemetery. Officiating ministers were the Rev. William Rice and the Rev. Ronalc Odum and pallbearers were Jim Sanders, Billy Moses, Elmos, Dean, Colbert and Daniel Henson.

Arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral Home.

The Franklin Press, 14 February 1974