

Pvt. John H. Henson Killed

Mrs. Grady Henson, of the Otto community, has received a message from the War Department stating that her son, Pvt. John H. Henson, was killed in action in Germany on December 23.

Pvt. Henson, 19, entered the service in April, 1944 and received five months training at Fort McClellan, Ala. He was given a delayed route home in August which allowed him a few days visit with his mother and family.

Following his visit home he had a short training period at Camp Pickett, Va., before he was sent overseas in October. He has been in England, Belgium and then to Germany, where he met his brother, Pvt. Elmus H. Henson, who has been in overseas service for the past 19 months. They are the sons of the late Grady Henson.

Surviving are the mother, three brothers, Sherrill Henson, of Brevard, Colbert Henson, of Otto, and Elmus H. Henson, serving in Germany, and four sisters, Freda Sue Henson, of Otto, Mrs. Louie Chastain, of Central, S. C., Mrs. Hubert Bradley, of Brevard and Mrs. Fred Littleton, of Highlands. Also two nephews, Hugh R. Bradley and Thomas M. Henson, of Brevard and a large number of other relatives.
