

Last Rites For Mrs. W. H. Hicks

Funeral services for Mrs. Maggie Hicks, 50, were held on Thursday afternoon about 2 o'clock at the Cope cemetery near the home at Kile. The Rev. George Younce, a Baptist minister of the Kyle section of Macon county, was in charge of the services.

Mrs. Hicks died on Wednesday at 2 o'clock, from ptomaine poisoning. She was the daughter of the late Amanda Reeves Tallent and Charlie Tallent.

The pallbearers were J. P. Solesbee, Carl Woods, Bass Baldwin, Ralph Woods, Arthur Hicks and Osburne Younce.

Surviving are the husband, W. H. Hicks, the father, Charlie Tallent, two brothers, Claude Tallent, of Bryson City and John Tallent, of Franklin; one sister, Mrs. Nina Cunningham, of Bald Springs, N. C., and one half-sister, Mrs. Minnie Willis.

The Franklin Press, 23 January 1941