

James Terry Higdon Passes On Monday

The infant son, James Terry, of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Higdon, 19 days old, died at the home on Monday at 4 a. m. after a few hours' illness with membranous croup.

Funeral services were conducted at the home on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock; the Rev. C. F. Rogers, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church, officiating. Interment was in the Franklin cemetery.

Surviving besides the parents are two sisters, Julia Ann and Beverly; and two brothers, Alfred, Jr., and Tommy; and one half brother, John Crawford.

The sympathy of many friends are with Mr. and Mrs. Higdon in their bereavement.

The Franklin Press, 22 May 1941