

Last Rites For Leonard A. Higdon

Leonard A. Higdon, 63, died Wednesday, July 14, at the State Hospital in Morgantown, after an illness of one month.

Mr. Higdon was a life-long resident of the Ellijay section and a member of the Sugarfork Baptist church. In 1913 he married Miss Lula Corbin.

Funeral services were held Friday, July 16, at the Sugarfork Baptist church at 3:15 p. m., with the Rev. Robert Williams officiating. Burial took place in the church cemetery.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Sam Bryson of Baltimore and Mrs. Pauline Harbin of Gastonia; one son, Raby, of the U.S. Navy; four sisters, Mrs. Bill Holbrooks and Mrs. Jim McDowell of Otto, Mrs. Mathe Vanhook of Canton and Mrs. Walter Gibson of Franklin, Route 3, and three grandchildren.

The Franklin Press, 22 July 1943