

Priscilla Hogan Higdon

Priscilla Hogan Higdon, 98, of Atlanta, Ga., passed away Monday, February 21, 2005.

A native of Lincolnton, Ga., she was the daughter of the late Thomas Beck and Lucy Graves Hogan. She was married to the late Thomas Bragg Higdon, formerly of Franklin. She was also preceded in death by 10 siblings.

She graduated from the Georgia State College for Women in Milledgeville and became an elementary school teacher and taught in DeKalb County. She was an active member of the Piedmont Driving Club, the Atlanta Women's Club and the Atlanta Historical Society. She was involved with the Rose Society and the Atlanta Botanical Gardens. She was active in the Aliae Sunday school class at Second Ponce de Leon Baptist Church, where she had been a member for more than 60 years.

She is survived by many nieces, nephews and friends.

Funeral services were held Sunday, Feb. 27, at 2 p.m., in the Swilley Chapel at the Second Ponce de Leon Baptist Church with burial following in Arlington Memorial Park.

The family received friends on Saturday, Feb. 26, from 4 to 6 p.m., at H.M. Patterson and Son Arlington Chapel in Sandy Springs.

H.M. Patterson and Son Arlington Chapel was in charge of the arrangements.

Online tributes may be made at www.mem.com.

The Franklin Press, 1 March 2005