

Jackson Native Dies In Local Hospital

Roscoe O. Higdon, 62, a prominent school teacher and farmer of Gay, and native of Jackson county, died Sunday about 6:30 p. m. in a Franklin hospital.

Mr. Higdon was married in 1916 to Miss Elizabeth Murray, a Macon County native, and two of his daughters, Mrs. Elmo Rogers and Miss Jo Ann Higdon, are now residing in Franklin.

Services were held Monday at 3 p. m. at the Higdon home at Gay.

The Franklin Press, 23 August 1951