

Mrs. Hodgins

Ethel D. Hodgins, 85, died Sunday, May 28, in a Burlington, Wash. convalescent home.

She was the daughter of Roxie and Fred Williamson of Franklin, the wife of Fred Hodgins of Georgia, and a member of the Lyman (Wash.) Baptist Church. The couple moved to Lyman in 1938; Mr. Hodgins preceded her in death in 1982.

She is survived by four sons, Don Hodgins and Dewey Hodgins, both of Seattle, Wash., Hoke Hodgins of Sedro-Woolley, Wash. and Bob Hodgins of Bellingham, Wash.; two daughters, Evelyn Buchanan of Sedro-Woolley, Wash. and Linda Parker of Lyman, Wash.; three brothers, Elbert Williamson, John Williamson and Ray Williamson, all of Franklin; a sister, Maybelle Southards, of Franklin; 15 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The Franklin Press, 19 June 1989