
Mr. Hodgins

Fred C. Hodgins, 75, of Sedro Wooley, Wash., died

Monday, Nov. 8, at his home, following a brief illness. He was a native of Macon County and was employed as a farmer and logger.

He is survived by his wife, Ethel Williamson Hodgins; four sons, Don K. Hodgins, Dewey H. Hodgins, and James R. Hodgins; two daughters, Evelyn Buchanan and Linda Parke; three brothers, W.B. Hodgins, Ed Hodgins, and O'Dell Hodgins of Franklin; three sisters, Iris Thomas of Franklin, Lucy Watts, and Anna Sanders; 12 grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Services were held Nov. 12 at Lemley Chapel, with burial in Lyman City Cemetery. The Rev. John Meyers officiated.