

Mrs. Hoglen

Dies At Home In Hickory Knoll Community

Mrs. Hallie Hoglen died at her home in the Hickory Knoll community Wednesday of last week at 3 a. m., following a brief illness.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Hickory Knoll Methodist church, with the Rev. V. N. Allen officiating. Interment followed at the Rush cemetery.

Mrs. Hoglen is survived by her husband, Everette B. Hoglen; six sons, R. L., J. B., Wilburn, Harold, Jack, and Gene, all of the home; three sisters, Mrs. Lawrence Penland, Mrs. George Stiles, and Mrs. E. A. Stiles, all of Franklin; two brothers, Lake Stiles, of Rabun Gap, Ga., and Furman Stiles, of Atlanta, Ga.

Pallbearers were Frank Stiles, Alex Hollbrooks, Garland Bateman, Charles Stiles, Fredrick Cunningham, and Vernon Cunningham.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Potts Funeral home.