

Mr. Holbrook

Paul Gibson Holbrook, 60, of 13 Ruby Mine Road, died Wednesday, Nov. 12, in C.J. Harris Community Hospital.

A native of Macon County, he was a son of the late James Robert and Pearl Gibson Holbrook. He was an Army veteran of World War II and a supervisor at Burlington-Rabun Mills Plant.

Surviving are his wife, Helen Guffey Holbrook; three daughters, Diane Mason of Franklin, Debra Holbrook of the home and Sandra Dorton of Concord; five sisters, Nannie Childers of Whittier, Verna West of Asheville, Eddis Hall, Orpha Burrell and Vennie Davis, all of Winston-Salem; two brothers, Weaver and Vance Holbrook of Franklin; and two grandchildren.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Sunday in Cowee Baptist Church, of which he was a member, former trustee, assistant Sunday School teacher and he was a former teacher. He had served for many years as the Cowee Baptist Church Softball league coach. The Revs. Duane Kuykendall and Lloyd Fish Jr. will officiate. Burial will be in the church cemetery with military rites by Franklin VFW and American Legion Post No.

106. Pallbearers will be Jim Holbrook, Ernest Childers, Allen Childers, Roy Rickman, Bobby West, David Burrell, and Wayne Davis. Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Management of Burlington Industries, Rabun Plant, and members of his Sunday School Class.

The family will receive friends from 6-9 p.m. Saturday at Bryant Funeral Home, where the body will remain until 30 minutes before services.

Memorials may be made to American Cancer Society, c/o Barbara E. Tallent, 523 Old Georgia Road, Franklin, N.C.; American Heart Association, c/o Dr. Edwin L. Morris, 8 Riverview St., Franklin, N.C.; or to Cowee Baptist Church cemetery fund, 24 Leatherman Road, Franklin.