

Frank Holbrooks

Frank Holbrooks, 56, a farmer of the Mashburn Branch Community, died unexpectedly Friday morning in a local hospital after suffering an apparent heart attack.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Nellie Huggins Holbrooks; two daughters, Mrs. Willard Barrett, of Franklin, Route 6 and Mrs. Don Bell of Asheville; a son, Boyd Holbrooks, of Franklin, Route 3; a sister, Mrs. Ruby Welch of Bryson City, Route 3; two brothers, Jack of Franklin, Route 3 and Wade Holbrooks of Franklin, Route 1; the mother, Mrs. Bell Rowland Holbrooks of Franklin, Route 3; and five grandchildren.

Services were held at 2 p.m. Sunday in Burningtown Baptist Church, of which he was a member.

The Revs. C. C. Welch, pastor, and Jud Duvall conducted the service. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Branson Barrett, Bill Parrish, Ronald Higgins, Earl Corbin, Eugene Estes and Robert Parris.

The family received friends from 7 to 9 Saturday at Bryant Funeral Home.